THINGS COME INTO OUR HANDS DEPT.....

Recently in our mailbox was a note entitled Snag's Heat-Wave. We print it herewith, with comment.

SNAG'S HEAT-WAVE. What? Alincha heard about it? You need your ears rebores. They've got a heat-wave up at Snag. And temperatures are soaring.

Thermometers at noon today. Hit sixty-five below. And that for Snag is stinking hot.

Don't leave me, Kid, I know. The papers are phumb-full with it.

Ten columns every day. And tangles are a 'locking there from near and far away.

The snow's all gone, the flowers out.

They've opened up their fories And Mayor Bill Loadmouth said today: "It surely is the bestier"

The Eskimos and Indians have moved as pale as death. While Mister Manning's monomaniac hands gasping for its breath.

All water's rationed tight as tight. They dote it out from legs. And all the heat for miles around.

Am laying hard-boiled eggs.

Snags girls of course, of course of course. The Sals, the Sues, the Minnie. All take the sun-and do the

In nothing but blinks.

The brewery's dry; the pubs are closed. The drug stores don't serve milk.

And now they're drinking anti-freeze, enriched with Epom salt.

Some blame it on Snag's polar bears. That went upon a jag.

But Dielenbaker says: "That's BULL!" It's Pearson's Peasoup flag."

But get yourself the Banner, Kid. And read what it's to say. The Banner is the paper with. Tomorrow's news today.

Well, no long, Kid, no long, no long. I've gotta juice the oov. But you can tell that the cool-eyed world. It's hot at Snag, and NOW.

SECOND SECTION

HOLD ON TO YOUR HATS. HERE WE GO AGAIN.

Renewed efforts have recently been made by various weekly newspaper publishers, with the Sun of Edmonton leading the pack, to get the Manning Government to lift the stifling restrictions on liquor advertising.

The weekly publishers feel that this should be a matter of individual right to make the choice as to whether or not their publication would carry liquor advertising. There would be many who would not carry the advertising anyway, but all feel this is the individual RIGHT of the publisher, to do so if he wishes.

But we are wondering personally, Mr Manning, how inconsistent can you get? We presume that the reason for the tight restriction against liquor advertising (up to $1,000, fine or three months in jail for the first offence) is to save the morals of Alberta from corruption.

But, Mr. Manning, if only you would close up the deplorable fifth on all newspapers first, then we would be more inclined to believe you if you say that liquor advertising might corrupt the morals of your supporters.

Further, Mr. Manning, if you yourself get out of the liquor business, and turn it over to private enterprise where it belongs, we'll be much more ready to listen to your arguments about liquor advertising corrupting the morals of the people.

Anyone who has ever been outside the Province of Alberta, and been in places where liquor is NOT under government control to the extent that it is in Alberta knows that there is far less drunkenness in those areas than there is in Alberta, on a per capita basis, which is the only figure by which one can properly evaluate such matters.

Under the present method of beer distribution only the very well-to-do can get into it, in conjunction with a large hotel that probably would never pay in any way if it were not for the beer sales. Among the many evils of this system is the fact that when that kind of money is involved there is always so much of "absentee ownership" in which the profits from the hotel and beer sales go out of the town or hamlet in which they are located to build still bigger and flonster hotels in cities. TO THE EDITOR

UNITY IN POLITICS

If religion deems Unity desirable to safeguard the religious "establishment" of the day, then politics should find Unity necessary to safeguard the freedom and viewpoint of those that are not the "establishment" yet are part of the same culture.

I find the above thought becoming close to the truth every day, those in opposition sit back and listen to the premier say we need another party, let me say that the opposition to the party in power is, that other party or could be, if it was not frustrated by prejudice.

The Unity Party in the Saskatchewan Constitution could be a prime mover in seeing that unity prevails even within our opposition in this constituency where is the leadership?

The task of pointing out differences in thinking among members of different groups or divisions in disunity among members of the same group is very difficult. But the harder the job is the more satisfying the accomplishment.

As an effective opposition we cannot afford any more than our frame of reference to dominate our thinking, as it stands now. It is observable in every day life that we are allowing prejudices to dominate our thought patterns. I will define this type of prejudice to be a special kind of attitude pattern aroused by social stimuli, accompanied by marked emotional responses, and leading to unfavorable judgments or acts. So let us dispense with all these small frames of references and have one big frame around a picture of Unity.

The whole pattern of an experience is more important in this instance, than its individual parts in determining policy. I hope in the reflection of thoughts we will appreciate a Unit vision so needed in today's world. There are battles to be fought, and what we must not lose sight of is the fact that they are battles against conditions produced by society: inequality, ignorance, poverty, injustice.

NOTICE

All householders are asked to be prepared for a request to place garbage containers at front of lot on pickup days when the spring thaw sets in and very probably makes the task impossible.

Further notice will be given to this effect when the time comes to activate this request. The wholehearted cooperation of all householders is requested when this becomes necessary, in order to insure a complete garbage pickup.

You are also reminded that pickup days are as follows:
SE quarter of Town on Mondays,
NE quarter of Town on Wednesdays,
Business Areas on Tuesdays and Fridays,
Trailer Courts & Industrial Areas on Thursdays.

In Co-operation it can be pointed out that for best lot pickup the lifting out of proper covered containers is that much more important for proper collection of a garbage - so those without proper containers are asked to make sure they possess some by this time.

Recreationally Speaking

The Drayton Valley Recreation Board held its regular monthly meeting on Monday, evening February 7, in the Recreation Office. Among other things the 1966 Recreation Budget was discussed.

It was with regret that we accepted the resignation of Mike Stables and Betty Ballivan from the board. Both these people were outstanding board members. Despite crowded schedules in each case, they very ably served this community in this very important phase of life and they both will be sadly missed by one and all.

Best of luck and a bright future to both Mike and Betty. I am sure that wherever either one goes he or she will enrich the Recreation program of their particular community.

The Drayton Valley Athletic Association will hold its month meeting on Thursday, February 10, in the Recreation Office. The Association is the sponsoring body for all minor sports in Drayton Valley. Over the years this organization has done a tremendous job in the promotion and sponsorship of youth activities and it will continue to do so in the future. The Association is short on membership and would welcome your help. If you are interested in the promotion of youth activities in the community and have some time to devote to this purpose the Athletic Association has a place waiting for you.

Siding in our leading outdoor sport but basketball has taken over as the number one indoor activity, and right now the outstanding team sport in Drayton Valley, Paul Bradley

Peter Loughheed

PETER LOUGHEED WILL SEEK ALBERTA CONSERVATIVE LEADERSHIP

Peter Loughheed, well-known Calgary community leader and grandson of one of Alberta's pioneer families today announced that he will seek the provincial leadership of the Progressive Conservative Party of Alberta. The party has called a leadership convention for March 10-20 in Edmonton.

Mr. Loughheed is the grandson of Alberta's first Conservative federal cabinet minister, Senator James Loughheed, who came to Medicine Hat and Calgary in 1887 and married the daughter of the Chief Justice of the Hudson Bay Company in this territory. For a quarter century, Senator Loughheed was the leader of the Conservative Party in the Senate, and at the time of his death, was national chair man of the Conservative Party in Canada.

Peter Loughheed, now 36 is a native of Alberta. He attended primary school in Calgary and was the president of the Student Union at his high school. He then attended the University of Alberta in Edmonton and received degrees in Arts and Law. In his graduating year, Mr. Loughheed was president of the Students' Union at the University. A participant in all team sports, he played professional football for the Edmonton Eskimos while attending university.

Mr. Loughheed has had an active business career. After graduating from Harvard University with a Master's degree in Business Administration, he joined Manito Co. Ltd., one of the largest commercial enterprises in Canada. He became progressively Secretary, General Counsel, Director and Vice President of the company. He left Manito three years ago to form his own law firm.

Mr. Loughheed is very active in community affairs. He is Vice President of the Hanf Olympic '76 Committee, working to obtain the Winter Olympics for the Province. He is a Director and Chairman of the Attractions Committee of the Calgary Stampede and a Director of the Calgary Community Foundation. He is a former Chairman of the Alberta House Fund in the Calgary district, a Director of the Calgary Junior Football Club and an officer of the Alberta Junior Football League.

His wife, Jeanne, is the daughter of Dr. L.M. Rogers of Camrose and Edmonton and the Loughheeds have one son Stephen and two daughters, Andrea and Pamela.

In announcing his candidacy Mr. Loughheed stated: "I believe Alberta deserves the chance to choose between two strong political parties, that there is real need for a new political force to be developed in this province with responsible ideas. Such a political force can develop best within the framework and traditions of an established party. It should embrace the energies and aspirations of young Albertans, support and be guided by the many experienced persons who have had little opportunity to participate in the political affairs of the province. Effective leadership of the party is a full time job. If elected leader in March, I will begin immediately to organize the energies and the ideas of all Albertans who will join with us to meet the challenging future problems of this province."

Halmrast Speaks To Oil Wives

In a Valentine setting of hearts and cupid, 78 members, 2 new members and guests gathered Monday evening, February 8 in the Caudron Room to enjoy a delicious Chinese dinner.

The business meeting was conducted by in Vice-Pres. Lil Ross. It was announced the March meeting will be held in the film's Hall. All members are asked to come dressed in the costume of their favorite sport. The next executive meeting will be March 1 at the home of Dorothy Armstrong.

Our most honored guest and speaker was the Hon. L. C. L. Halmrast, Minister of Public Welfare for the Province of Alberta, accompanied by his charming wife.

In his opening remarks, Mr. Halmrast stated he was sure the Hon. Gordon Taylor would be most curious if he knew he was speaking in a large group of large group of lovely ladies.

Mr. Halmrast gave us a brief history of the Dept. of Public Welfare pointing out the eleven eleven changes in this field of service in the last several years. This department has become the largest spending department in the public service. He said the Provincial Government, Dept. of Health and Education.

He dealt briefly with Old Age Assistance, Child Welfare and Social Service. He declared it a most interesting job with a chance to do so much good.

Many thanks to a truly fine gentleman and a captivating speaker.

The evening ended with coffee and a chance to visit among members who wished to do so.

Boxing Club News

The local boxing club boys went up to Slave Lake over the past weekend and turned in a right good account of themselves, as we expected they would.

Bruce Corbett lost his fight on a contested decision, Ervin Corbett won it a handily and so did the other Fighting Corbett McEvitt.

Gary McEvitt lost his fight when the referee stopped the fight after Gary fell through the ropes.

The boys brought back three trophies. The club heads for red door next.

We'll expect a "good report" the standings were as follows:

At room temperature, into a large bowl, put 6 oz. blue cheese, 10 oz. cheddar spread, 12 oz. cream cheese, 2 tablespoons grated onion, 1 tablespoon liquid OXO, and several dashes of tabasco. Crush with large spoon. Mix and whip together until very smooth. Wrap in foil and chill over night or longer. About 1 hour before serving, shape into a big ball and roll it in finely chopped parsley. Place on a serving platter and surround with crisp crackers.

SECOND SECTION
Editorially Speaking
To Save A Life

We keep hearing complaints (don't know if anyone else does) about cars letting off school children that are big enough to walk in from the street to the school. Apparently these fond parents take Junior and Junior's right up to the very door of the school. In the spots where the school buses load and unload, thereby making a hazardous and time consuming job for the bus drivers, who have plenty of natural hazards and inconveniences to cope with just in normal operations of getting decent upon dozens of high-spirited and lively children to school on time. One bus driver said that he felt that someday the practice was going to lead to a child being killed, and he felt it was adding too much of bus drivers. He felt that all vehicles other than the buses should be barred from the school entrance at bus loading and unloading time. If that cannot be done he was at least hoping that parents would have enough courtesy for the bus-riding children and the bus drivers to let the children off at a spot quite close to the school where they could walk the few hundred feet involved instead of tying up the driveway as it now the practice. We know that our former bus driver, a farmer in the area, quit driving bus for that very reason, and since his farm does not support him and his family fully, he is now driving taxi in Edmonton during the winter months, away from his family and the farm.

While we are on the subject WHAT ABOUT SCHOOL PATROLS? A boy was run down recently at the Hospital intersection. A first-grader, bundled against the winter cold, the lad would not have attempted to cross the intersection had there been a School Patrol on duty at the time to watch for traffic. Anyone that is looking for a "Project", it might be a good one to take on.

Edmonton's Lively Council Meetings

Are we the ratepayers in Drayton Valley being cheated? Our Town Council goes about its business, getting the job done, efficiently and quietly, without all the fuss and charges and counter charges that the Edmonton Council indulges in. When we ask "Are We Being Cheated?" we of course are being facetious. We know we are not, we know that our local council in contrast with the ride-show that Edmonton put on each council meeting day and for days afterwards, in serving us well, very well, even if not as colorfully as our neighboring city's Council.

We have had enough of a spectacle this past session of Parliament. Without City Council trying to emulate them. But we presume that while people continue to elect jack-asses to public office they will have to listen to them dray.
